CONGRESS RIGA
BRUNO MOLEA
CSIT President
Sport is a fascinating social phenomenon in society. Sport is seen to play an important role as a promoter for peace and social integration in different geographical, cultural and political contexts. Has sport prevented conflicts and tensions? The answer is no, because it is not sport that can do so; it is us, writes Dr. Marion Keim, Professor at the University of the Western Cape and an Advocate of the High Court of South Africa. Worker sport movements are a part of the above mentioned social phenomenon. This Festschrift book describes the 100 years development, the current state and the future international sports partnerships of the International Workers and Amateurs in Sports Confederation (CSIT). It also predicts that women might be the future of sport. This book tells us how and why the world organization having more than 208 million registered clients and members in 44 member organizations from 34 countries has grown to a player in sport for all movement in Europe, Americas, Africa and Far East. This book is a necessary read not only for the members of the CSIT but also for everyone interested in the multidimensional functions of sport in society.

Dear sport friends in CSIT,

Sport is a vehicle of dialogue, a tool of social integration and communication: educating young people to the sport values means raising them in physical and social wellbeing. I want to start my job as President of CSIT from young and together with young.

With the presidency of Harald Bauer I shared all projects and aims: my presidency will be in the sign of continuance of the last years policies of CSIT. I want to continue in the marked direction, trying to re-launch it, but also considering new challenges.

There are three issues on which I want to pay my attention and assure my commitment: communication, young leaders and the re-launch of the Games to attract more sponsors.

I believe that internal and external communication should be encouraged, strengthened and re-launched. We can do this through enhancing a relevant role for CSIT young leaders, who should represent our future and the continuance of our Confederation. Through them, we can invest in new challenges and make a bigger use of new technologies, so to improve our efficiency inside and our potentials outside of the Confederation. Through young leaders we could get new members, broaden the movement and make it more universal and stronger. Moreover we have to pay attention to the search of new cooperation partners and sponsors, useful to collect new resources, to be used in the development of CSIT activities.

According to these visions, the CSIT World Sports Games should become our brand, as a tool to attract sponsors, thinking about those games as our “Olympics”: an occasion that has increasingly become more and more a huge world-wide multi-sport event and less a mere associative context, to attract more sponsors for CSIT.

Furthermore I believe that time has come to create within the World Sports Games a section for athletes with disabilities: everyone has the right to socialize, to participate and to compete. Our role and our history of men and women dedicated to the promotion of sports for all asks us now to act actually considering the needs of all.

To do that, I need the support of all members. I am aware that we win only as unity: if divided, we cannot achieve our common objectives. Thank you and good luck with your work then.

BRUNO MOLEA
THE NEW CSIT PRESIDENT

Bruno Molea was born in Tripoli (Libia) in 1955. Since 1970 the new CSIT president is living in Forlì, in the northern part of Italy, where he graduated as surveyor. Molea is married with Catia and has one daughter, who recently gave him two grandsons.

The career of Bruno Molea in the last four decades is very impressive. Actually he is the National President of AICS, the Italian Association of Culture and Sport, a no-profit organisation dealing with sport and culture promotion, member of CSIT and recognized by CONI (Italian Olympic Committee). He is member of the National Committee of CONI and Deputy Member of the Italian Parliament.

From 1975 Molea has been surveying advisor of the municipality of Forlì, where he was involved in foreign markets sector. But his passion for sport (President Molea was federal football referee) led him, since he was young, to deal in sport training as technician, as director within AICS and as leader in the sport club volleyball of Forlì. He founded AICS Volley Forlì of which he was President until 2009, leading the club and his first team to the B1 Women’s Championship, and gaining the promotion into A2.

His sporting commitment moved soon from the playing fields to the institutional representation. From 1990 to 1998 Molea was President of AICS Committee of Forlì-Cesena. 1998 he was President of AICS Emilia Romagna until 2006 and then designated as National President of AICS. AICS, chaired by Molea, is not only recognized by CONI as a sport promotion agency, AICS is also recognized by many Italian ministries as institution for social policies, as well as a voluntary and civil protection organization. For these reasons, in representation of the association that now has 900.000 members, Molea is member of the national executive committee of the Third Sector Forum.

The 6th February of 2013 Molea was elected as member of the National board of the Italian National Olympic Committee. From 2009 he was the vice president of ISTO, the International Organization of Social Tourism. His commitment within AICS to support culture and sport as wellbeing means was crucial, meaning them as tool able to promote social cohesion values and inclusion, operating for the development of social promotion and for the moral and social growth of the Association, enhancing forms of active citizenship. Journalist with a past in the Socialist Party, Molea received in 2009 a medal of merit of the Italian Republic and the Gold Star to the sportive merit from CONI. In 2013 he received the international award by the Order of the Knights of Malta as peace attorney.

2013 Molea was elected within a civic list in the Italian political elections: he was second in his constituency (Emilia Romagna). Now he is deputy member of the XVII Italian legislature. He is vice president of the Culture Commission in the Chamber of Deputies and secretary of the Supervisory Committee of RAI, the Italian television.
When my predecessor, Harald Bauer spoke to me for the first time about his new working commitments and about the need to leave the CSIT as President, I thought the Confederation would have lost a balanced and organized guide, able to forge institutional and international relations, equipped with a forward-thinking perspective for sport promotion.

I was really proud when Harald Bauer spoke to me about the possibility that I am the person that is able to replace him as President of the CSIT.

I would like to thank Harald Bauer for what he has done during his presidency: he represented a relevant turning point for CSIT, providing to the Confederation adaptations up to date. Always available to interactions, under his presidency we signed strategic protocols with other organizations and re-launched the Confederation as a more open and well-known platform.

I actually believe that this strategic policy is proper for an Confederation, with its 100 years, which now faces the need of a new way to communicate and to develop itself taking into considerations new world challenges. Together we have been able to reach important goals: I hope that I can continue to count on his contribution to face new challenges. I hope to continue the work undertaken by my predecessor, to whom I give my best wishes for the new challenges of his life. His period as CSIT President will remain in the collective memory of the Confederation.

THANK YOU, HARRY!

AUSTRIAN HARALD BAUER RESIGNED AS CSIT PRESIDENT DUE TO BUSINESS REASONS. BAUER, CSIT PRESIDENT SINCE 2008, LAST JUNE SIGNED A CONTRACT AS CEO OF THE AUSTRIAN “SPORTS FOUNDATION”, AN ORGANISATION THAT SUPPORTS 250 AUSTRIAN TOP-ATHLETES FINANCIALLY. BAUER IS LOOKING BACK TO WONDERFUL EIGHT YEARS ON TOP OF THE ORGANISATION.

After five years of experience in the CSIT Excom, the majority of the member unions elected me during the CSIT Congress in Tel Aviv 2008 for the chairmanship of CSIT. Proud and grateful upon the trust I have received, my newly composed Excom team started with me a mutual journey with a clear vision.

Being prepared of my predecessor Professor Kalevi Olin we started with a concept of re-organisation and re-structured the confederation. It was obvious that CSIT should have modern structures, a clear vision and several goals to reach. So we decided during the congress in RIO to open CSIT to all amateurs in sport worldwide.

Developing the concept of the World Sports Games, which are a brand and a product at the same time, the Games grew and became popular in the international world of Sport. Gathering a couple of thousands of participants every second year, the competitions as well as sports for all activities attract and inspire young and old athletes alike.

I am glad and satisfied for having received friendship and fruitful cooperation from all my Excom colleagues, technical sport commissioners and co-operation partners. Today I can hand over the presidency to MP Bruno Molea who will lead the CSIT into a fruitful and prosperous future.

In my new business position I am responsible for the support of 250 professional top-level athletes of the Austrian sports community by granting them monthly financial subventions in order to allow them professional training and lifestyle. I really love my new professional life and at the same time I love to remain as an active board member in CSIT in order to continue the process I have started in Tel Aviv in October 2008.

I wish our new President Bruno Molea the best success and will be available in any case the CSIT will need me.

See you all in Riga!

Cordially,
Harald Bauer

WORLD SPORTS GAMES 2017

The Riga Organizing Committee (RIGOC) of the Games is a team of experienced professionals that will ensure CSIT WSG 2017 on a top level. RIGOC includes members from different areas of expertise as accommodation, sports facilities or sports management. The CSIT WSG 2017 will be organised with support of the Riga city council, the Association of Latvian Sports Federations and the Ministry of Education of the Republic of Latvia.

The participants will be provided a real international sports week with additional touristic and cultural content they will never forget: 16 CSIT official championships as well as other championships, such as Wheel Gymnastics (IRV) Open Mixed Masters 2017, YOU.FO – International Tournament 2017, Street Workout – World Cup 2017, Latvian Open Crossminton Championships 2017 and many more, new and demonstration sports and a special programme for seniors. This is just a short summary what to expect at WSG 2017. More information can be found on the official Website http://wsg2017.com/ also containing the final invitation, on-line registration platform and many other useful information.

During the CSIT Congress in Riga, October 17 to October 23, LTSA shared its vision and the concept of WSG 2017. The congress was attended by approx. 130 representatives of sports organisations from 26 different countries. Delegates had the chance to experience hospitality and warmth of RIGOC, to discuss sports regulations during technical commission sessions and to visit the sports facilities for the upcoming 5th World Sports Games 2017.

SPORTS FACILITIES ARE READY

There are plenty of sports facilities in Riga that are suitable for World Sports Games. Athletes in every sports discipline will have access to high quality indoor and outdoor facilities based on their needs. All sports objects are located very close to the center of Riga and can be easily reached by public transport, which is a very big advantage. During the CSIT Congress in Riga, the delegates visited various sports objects like the Daugava Sports Center, Olympic Sports Center and sports facilities of several schools in Riga.

The Congress house located in a lovely Kronvalda park is currently considered as a possible location for a main meeting point. Opening and closing ceremonies will be held on Lucavala the perfect place for outdoor summer activities like concerts and other public events) or Skonto stadium (located in the heart of Riga with all the necessary infrastructure). Riga’s beautiful parks will be used for activities for seniors (e.g. yoga, meditation) as well as new and demonstrative sports.

FASCINATING RIGA – YOU WILL NEVER BE BORED

LTSA will make sure that every participant of the WSG 2017 will feel at home in Riga. There are plenty of options for day and night activities. Exciting sightseeing tours will help WSG 2017 guests to understand better Riga’s interesting history, to enjoy Art Nouveau and medieval architecture.

The Old Town of Riga is full of locals and tourists and bustling nightlife. One may easily be tempted by the rich choice of nightclubs, bars, pubs or shot bars. Traditionally Latvians enjoy drinking beer and often you will find some local craft beers on offer. LTSA will be organizing social events every evening for WSG 2017 participants, so that everyone will have the chance to enjoy Riga’s nightlife.
Additionally, when exploring Riga on your own or with friends, you can enjoy open-air concerts on Thursdays at Kalnciema Street Quarter (located close to city center, on the left bank of the river Daugava) or in Berga bazars (in the city center). Both of these places frequently host also different thematic markets of local products [food and crafts].

When the weather is good, it is nice to sit on the terrace of one of the numerous restaurants in the Old Town, listening to live music. Another option would be to attend one of the restaurants with roof terraces to enjoy a delightful bird-eye view of Riga.

Riga – The Jewel in the Crown of Baltics

Riga has successful experience in hosting a lot of important sports and cultural events such as EFCS Sport Games 2001, World Ice Hockey Championship 2006, various European Basketball Championships (e.g. Eurobasket 2015) or Annual Riga Marathon [20,000 athletes]. National song and dance festivals and World choir games are events that have thousands of participants and are real celebrations of talent and joy.

Riga is a very beautiful 816 years old city, where medieval architecture meets art-nouveau (Riga’s historical center is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, noted for its Art Nouveau/Jugendstil architecture and 19th-century wooden architecture). But at the same time, it is the capital of Latvia, an important economic center in the Baltic Sea Region, a trade center between East and West.

Flights to Riga – Special Offers for WSG Participants

Thanks to its central location Riga is a perfect transport hub in the Baltics. Riga airport is currently servicing around 5 million passengers per year. AirBaltic Corporation is offering direct flights to more than 60 destinations in Europe, Central Asia and Middle East and plans to offer new ones soon to Stavanger, Catania, Gothenburg, Tampere, Aberdeen and Geneva in summer 2017. AirBaltic has special offers for WSG 2017 participant groups (especially for European destinations). Get information on sportgroups@airbaltic.lv.

Cultural Life

Cultural life in Riga is very rich: Latvian National Opera, concerts and exhibition halls always have something interesting to offer. Riga has plenty of good restaurants with different types of cuisine. Many famous restaurants use seasonal local products, offering a real gastronomic journey; e.g. in 2017 a special concept, called "Wild at Palate", will help to get to know the diverse dining out pleasure to be found in Riga and nearby cities of Sigulda, Cesis and Valmiera. However European, Italian, Asian food is quite popular in Riga too.

It is possible to have SPA treatments and beauty procedures in Riga city center (even extraordinary options like e.g. beer SPA are available). Riga has plenty of shopping centers with easy-to-get location (e.g. in the Old Town, near the central station).

Hospitality is Everywhere

Riga is known for its hospitality. The hotel staff is very professional and always glad to assist. The capacity for accommodation in Riga is 15,000 beds, so it will not be a problem to provide proper accommodation to all participants of the WSG 2017. Many hotels are located in the city center, others are often within walking distance or can be easily reached by public transport. Hotels represent 3 categories: 4 stars, 3 stars and 2 stars.

The list of the hotels can be found on WSG 2017 website http://wsg2017.com/.

Riga is ready and waiting for you - CSIT World Sports Games from 13th to 18th June 2017!
More than twenty opinion leaders and specialists from 7 member unions took part in the 3rd formation course “Physical activities for seniors” 21-23 September 2016 in Saint-Brice-Sous-Forêt, France. The participants came from AFWSI (Iran), FROS (Belgium), TUL (Finland), HAPOEL (Israel), UISP (Italy), DAI (Denmark) and FSGT (France).

The participants are used to instruct seniors and elderly people at home and all participants had a fruitful and pleasant time of sharing experiences and proposing new ideas and activities. The evaluation showed that all could bring something back home. Even though there were a lot of laughter and smiles during the three days. All the participants came with one very important professional goal. Instead of just talking about the activities everybody had to participate, so it’s very hands-on courses.

Some of the ideas that worked well on the course will be used at the World Sports Games 2017 in Riga, Latvia. The instructors could then also have the chance to instruct a larger group of athletes at the WSG.
Prior to the Congress the CSIT Executive Committee held its regular meeting. During this week CSIT Vice-President Anu Rajajärvi from Finland organized a conference for Young Leaders with positive response from all participating unions. For the coming years Mrs. Rajajärvi aims to give a strong voice to the CSIT youth and young leaders in the Executive Committee.

The Congress was opened with the welcome speech of the resigning CSIT President Harald Bauer and Andris Berzins, President of the hosting CSIT member LTSA and former Prime Minister of Latvia. Further guest speeches were held by Kārlis Šadurskis (Latvian Minister of Education and Science) and Zorzs Tikmers (Vice President Olympic Committee Latvia).

Special Guests were CSIT Honorary President Kalevi Olin from Finland and Honorary Member Avigdor Dagon from Israel as well as high representatives from CSIT cooperation partners as EFPM President Christian Hinterberger, IRV President Henning Henningsen, FICEP President Gerhard Hauer, FIFCO President Albert Zbily, YOU.FO Founder and CEO Bas Ruyssemaars and MAMANET Founder Ofra Abramovich.

The preparation status of the CSIT World Sports Games 2017 in Riga (WSG) has been considered satisfactory by CSIT’s specialists. All members of the technical sports commissions and the international delegates had the possibility to visit the sports venues in Riga and had fruitful discussions and coordination meetings with the sports-specialists of the WSG Organizing Committee RIGOC.

All participants were informed about a new online-registration-platform and the new "WSG 2017-APP 2.0" for the upcoming games. The Technical Commissions as well as the new Secretary of Swimming Roberto Vecchione (AICS) had a special training for using and serving the new APP.
for actual and quick information for all kinds of sports (results, timetable, ranking...) as well as social events during these event days.

Nowadays Doping is a serious topic and Sports Director Henk Bouchoms presented the new Anti-Doping Policy of CSIT, which can be found in the Anti-Doping-Corner of the download-center on www.csit.tv. He underlined the excellent cooperation with the specialists of SportAccord and WADA and gave thanks for their support; he reminded that Doping Tests will be conducted at all World Sports Games and all participants have to sign obligatory the "Appendix 2 – Consent Form" in the run-up to the World Sports Games 2017.

CSIT Sports Director Bouchoms announced that within the frame the WSG 2017 elections of the Technical Commission members in each official CSIT sport will be held in Riga. Candidatures to chair and to act as secretary of the Technical Commissions for the next four years can only be accepted from full member organisations. Simultaneously each full member organisation has voting rights. Indispensable besides the competence in the specific sport is the necessity to speak English and optional French.

HOW TO GET VISA FOR RIGA 2017

For a World Confederation as the CSIT the visa topic is always of highest importance. WSG 2017 host LTSA invited Ambassador-Director General Mihails Popkovs, a specialist from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, to hold a presentation about the Latvian VISA policy. It is a general recommendation to get in contact with the specific embassy in time, almost half a year in advance and to coordinate intensively with our host union the Latvian Sports for All Association – LTSA. Further information about contact data can be found here: wsg2017.com

CSIT Secretary General Wolfgang Burghardt and Kārlis Šadurskis, Latvian Minister of Education and Science.

The tournament was organised one week from the opening of the UEFA European Championships in order to get the answer to an open question: Is it possible to organize a self-refereed international competition with quality matches. The participating teams proved all together: Yes! Self-refereed international football is possible! Even on high level.

Launched with three days of discovery of self-refereed 7-player football, with local clubs in FSGT committees, this tournament has seen the organization of 45 matches within seven days. Nice moments of sharing friendship, in particular the opening ceremony of the tournament. All has made deep impressions.

The feedback of all participating delegations points out the success of the event, with the human, cultural and sports exchange as a central element, and the willing, shared by everybody, to take part again in an international self-refereed football competition.

EVERY MOTHER CAN

Mamanet started in Israel and is spreading worldwide. Thousands of mothers in Italy, Austria, Cyprus, Spain, Canada, Belgium, France, Bulgaria and the United States are adopting this unique Israeli model. Mamanet, played in Cachibol leagues, give mothers a chance to work out, have fun, meet other women from their children’s school and set an example for their kids. Instead of nagging their kids to go outside and play, 10,000s Israeli mothers are setting an example by playing Cachibol (also called Newcomb) in a national league network called Mamanet. Joining a team based in her child’s school, each Mamanet player gets to know other moms in a totally different setting than class trips or PTA meetings.

“Instead of being the ‘soccer mom’ who drives her children to practice and cheers them on by the sidelines, the mother becomes the star of the game, and the children become her fans,” says Ofra Abramovich, founder of Mamanet. “This allows the mother to serve as a role model for good sportsmanship, dedication to a team and commitment to physical exercise.” Mothers of Mamanet hope to set an example of physical activity and good sportsmanship for their kids.

“The uniforms are imprinted with the host school’s name and logo”, says Abramovic. “Mothers feel more engaged with the school and its student body. In several cities, schools with Mamanet leagues have begun intramural volleyball teams for kids as young as six who want to emulate their moms. The participation of mothers in the amateur league encourages increased participation by children in sports clubs.”

Instead of being the ‘soccer mom’, mothers become the stars of the game and children their fans.
MAMANET - CACHIBOL
similar to volleyball, except players catch the ball before passing it to a teammate or over the net

When Abramovich first hatched the idea after a friend invited her to play Cachibol, the mayor of her hometown wasn’t enthusiastic about providing funds. Refusing to give up, Abramovich called the mayor’s wife, who prevailed upon her husband to support the initiative. Kfar Saba now boasts 27 Mamanet teams with 300 players. “Today, every mayor wants a league in place because of how it contributes to the city,” says Abramovich, explaining that volunteer work is part of the Mamanet mission.

Among the different volunteer projects Cachibol with women is played in prisons and in a battered-women’s shelter; doing activities with children from a therapeutic boarding school; training youth-at-risk to be referees; and running regional sport nights for breast-cancer awareness. The Mamanet phenomenon extends to all sectors of the Israeli population. Participants run the gamut from Bedouin Arab to ultra-Orthodox moms. Because Cachibol doesn’t require special athletic training, Mamanet’s slogan is “Any mother can!”

CSIT HELPED MAMANET TO GROW WORLDWIDE

The international growth of Mamanet was spurred by its admission into CSIT, the world’s largest amateur sports organization, based in Europe. Former CSIT President Harald Bauer saw the mothers playing in Eilat a couple of years ago and was intrigued enough to contact Abramovich on his next trip to Israel a year later.

“He said that many sports groups try to enter his organization and only rarely do they find something that is a ‘wow.’ The last time it happened was 15 years ago, when they discovered Nordic walking. Harald told me that he wanted to bring us into CSIT and have Mamanet everywhere.”

Bauer invited her to the CSIT congress in Cancun to do a presentation, and some 50 Israeli Mamanet mothers played Cachibol at the CSIT World Sports Games in Lignano, Italy, in 2015. 2017 Mamanet will send representatives to the next World Sports Games in Riga, Latvia.

In mid-May, Abramovich joined 160 other Mamanet players from Israel, Italy, Austria and Cyprus in Spain for Mamanet’s first international tournament, at which Barcelona’s famed football (soccer) club came to meet them. The four-day event also included opportunities for hiking, entertainment, shopping and bonding activities.

“Israel is known as being good in high-tech, but the social sporting movement Mamanet is really something unique,” says Abramovich.
